

We believe in using all the tools in the toolkit. Ingenuity Marketing Group can deliver analysis and research that helps you measure past success while defining the best tools in your toolkit to attract prospects and recharge current clients. This program is designed to help in-house marketing staff to accomplish specific objectives in a short time frame or for new clients to work with Ingenuity on a project basis.

The InGenius marketING™ program is tailored to your organization to choose and implement any or several of these marketing opportunities:

TAILOR YOUR PROGRAM

Give Ingenuity the task and we can be your outsourced marketing consultants to get the job done quickly and to your satisfaction. Our consultants and designers can be engaged on a tailored fee basis, so call us to discuss your needs.
